

Draft Handbook on the Carpathian Convention

Article 4: Conservation and Sustainable Use of Biological and Landscape Diversity

First Meeting of the Working Group on Conservation and Sustainable Use of Biological and Landscape Diversity

Vienna, 26-27 March 2007

Cécile Monnier

THE REGIONAL ENVIRONMENTAL CENTER
*for Central and Eastern Europe

Umbrella project

“Support to the implementation of the Carpathian Convention in the framework of the Alpine – Carpathian partnership”

Project supported by the Italian Ministry of Environment, Land and Sea, and implemented by the Regional Environmental Centre in partnership with the European Academy (EURAC).

The main outputs are:

- Regional Assessment of the Legal, Policy and Institutional Framework related to the Carpathian Convention
- The Carpathian Convention Handbook for Implementation targeted at local authorities.

Carpathian Convention Handbook for Implementation targeted at local authorities

Outline

- Introduction
- Institutional aspects
- Operative provisions
- Annexes

Carpathian Convention Handbook for Implementation targeted at local authorities

Structure of the chapters

Short introduction

Paragraph by paragraph review including:

- Major concepts
- Best practices
- Main international relevant agreements
- Responsibility of local authority

Linkages with other articles of the convention

Thank you for your attention!

<http://www.rec.org/REC/Programs/environmentallaw/carpathian/default.html>

elp@rec.org

