

THIS year,

BE AN INTERN AT CEEWEB!

Here are 5 REASONS you should join our team:

- CEEweb is a vast network of NGOs across 20 Central and Eastern European countries. We're also part of numerous European alliances, forums and partnerships, so our organization is a great place to build a contact network and launch your career in environmental policy!
- We're a team of young, talented and friendly individuals with a common goal: to make nature, environment and sustainable development truly matter in European policy. We're alike!
- CEEweb is a catalyzer of innovative, up-to-date sustainability concepts in the region.
- You have plenty to learn from experienced colleagues, in a wide range of topics, from agriculture to fundraising and biodiversity conservation.
- Our office is based in Budapest, one of Europe's hidden jewels, a magnificent city you will certainly fall in love with. The Hungarian capital also has a thriving community of young international professionals.
