

CEEweb for Biodiversity
Széher út 40. 1021 Budapest, Hungary
Phone: +36 1 398 0135
Fax: +36 1 398 0136
ceeweb@ceeweb.org
www.ceeweb.org

Natura 2000 Management and Agri-Environmental Scheme and Natura 2000 Payments Workshops

3-5 October 2012, Dworek Gorce, Kamienica, Poland
Agenda

Please note your contribution in the agenda !

3 October, 2012

12:00-19:00 Workshop on Natura 2000 site management

- 12:00-12:05 Welcome – Pawel Pawlaczyk, Naturalists Club Poland, Chair of CEEweb's Natura 2000 Working Group
- 12:05-12:30 EC notes on SAC designation and conservation objectives – Pawel Pawlaczyk, Naturalists Club Poland & EU's Natura 2000 Management Expert Group
- 12:30-13:00 How to use Wilderness and Natura 2000 experiences and needs from CEE in site management planning – Ildikó Arany, CEEweb for Biodiversity
- 13:00-13:30 Natura 2000 site management planning in Poland: "plans of conservation measures"- NGO's involvement in the process – Monika Kotulak & Pawel Pawlaczyk, Naturalists Club Poland
- 13:30-14:30 Lunch
- 14:30-15:30 Problems of "planning in the lack of information" – Pawel Pawlaczyk, Naturalists Club Poland
- 15:30-16:00 Natura 2000 sites management planning – Regional experience – Magdalena Szymalska, Regional Directorate of Environment Protection Kraków, Poland
- 16:00-16:30 Coffee Break
- 16:30-18:00 National experiences by participants – call for presentations from CEEweb members

CALL FOR CONTRIBUTION: Please provide 10 minutes presentation from your country including the following points:

- How the site management planning is organized?
- What is the present and expected progress?
- What are the NGO's possibilities, wish and capacity to get involved?
- Accent the most important problems based

CEEweb for Biodiversity
Széher út 40. 1021 Budapest, Hungary
Phone: +36 1 398 0135
Fax: +36 1 398 0136
ceeweb@ceeweb.org
www.ceeweb.org

on a specific case or in general site management in the county

18:00-19:00 Discussion: Recommendations for CEE NGOs and decision-makers - how to get involved in site management planning processes. Our message to Alpine "new biogeographic process" on management Natura 2000 sites & habitats

19:00 Dinner

20:00 Cultural programme

4 October, 2012

8:00-9:00 Breakfast

9:00-9:30 Introductory note on Gorce Mountains National Park & Natura 2000 site - local site management planning and CAP implementation problems.

9:30 – 17:00 Field trip (short bus trip + long mountain walk with packed lunch):
Gorce National Park:
- Forest ecosystems: non-intervention management vs active conservation
- Mountain meadows conservation problems in Gorce Mts. Conservation measures. Pastoralism as cultural heritage
- Spruce mountain forests: conservation problems. Bark beetle outbreaks vs nature conservation
- Beech old growth forests
- Kamienica – queen of Gorce rivers: conservation problems
- Amphibians conservation

18:00 – 19:00 Dinner

19:00-21:00 Evening workshop session

19:00-19:30 Babia Góra management plan experience - Jan Loch

19:30-20:00 Large carnivores needs in site management plans – Monika Kotulak, Naturalists Club Poland

20:00-20:30 Birds requirements for Natura 2000 site management plans in Carpathians – Tomasz Wilk, OTOP (Birdlife Poland)

CEEweb for Biodiversity
Széher út 40. 1021 Budapest, Hungary
Phone: +36 1 398 0135
Fax: +36 1 398 0136
ceeweb@ceeweb.org
www.ceeweb.org

5 October, 2012

7:00-8:00 Breakfast

8:00-12:00 Short field visit:
– active conservation of raised bog (Bór na Czerwonem in Natura 2000 site “Orawa-Nowy Targ Bogs”
– river management and river habitat conservation: Bialka river
– ecological connectivity for Natura 2000 (Pieniny-Gorce corridor)

12:00-13:00 Lunch

13:00-19:00 Workshop on CAP issues and relationships between CAP and Natura 2000 management

13:00-13:30 Future Agri-Environmental Scheme and Natura 2000 payments and current state of play – Polish approach – Marek Jobda, OTOP (Birdlife Poland)

13:30-14:00 Forest-environmental schemes: forgotten opportunity? – Pawel Pawlaczyk, Naturalists Club Poland

14:00- 16:00 Sharing experience on Agri-Environmental Scheme and Natura 2000 payments from CEE countries and discussion on lessons learnt – call for presentations on concrete cases

CALL FOR CONTRIBUTION: Please provide 10 minutes presentation on:

- How the agri-environmental schemes’ beneficiary of Natura 2000 were organized in your country for 2007-2013 period and what is discussed for the 2014-2020 period?
- What is the relation between agrienvironmental schemes and “Natura 2000 payments”?
- Accent one more important problem/constraint which should be solved through specific cases where AES DID NOT work properly.

14:45-15:15 Coffee Break

16:00-17:00 Sharing experience on the boreal biogeographical outcomes and their channelization into the Agri-Environmental Scheme – Ildikó Arany, CEEweb

17:00 – 19:00 Compiling our recommendations for the future Agri-Environmental Scheme and Natura 2000 payments

19:00 –Dinner/Farewell

CEEweb for Biodiversity
Széher út 40. 1021 Budapest, Hungary
Phone: +36 1 398 0135
Fax: +36 1 398 0136
ceeweb@ceeweb.org
www.ceeweb.org

6 October, 2012

7:30-8:00 Breakfast

8:00-13:00 - Optional: Dunajec river raft across Pieniny National Park – Szczawnica

The workshops are generously supported by the European Commission

